A NEW BOARDBOOK SERIES IN A HANDY LANDSCAPE FORMAT
WITH A GOLDEN EDGE

1,2,3 we're going to the woods

1,2,3 we're going to the woods.

4,5,6 to pick cherries!

3 little rabbits dressed in their red cloaks, start to sing while picking cherries, that's exactly what will whet the appetite of the wolves in the woods, already licking their lips...

Little Snail

Little snail carries his house on his back.

As soon as it rains, what a feast!

As soon as the first raindrops fall, great! All the snail family prepare themselves quickly: get to the garden for a fabulous picnic in the rain!

The Turtle Family

No one has ever seen, nor will ever see the Turtle family following rats.

Nor the Frog family crunching chocolate; or the Penguin family going out in pyjamas! But the rhythm of samba in the air, played by the Rabbit family, brings a parade of animals to a cheerful party!

That's how I like my biscuit!

The mouse tells how she likes her biscuit. Then it is the turn of the cow, the fox, the oger, etc.

Goldy locks and the bears would rather have theirs with honey! But beware of the wolf who's not so keen on biscuits!

TODDLERS

MY GOLDEN TALES

My beautiful fir tree

My beautiful fir tree, king of the forest,
how I love your evergreen pine!

From its roots to its needles and its bark to its pine cones, the majestic tree offers so much to the little forest inhabitants. A nursery rhyme celebrating its beauty and a string of decorations to adorn it for Christmas... what could be better!

Call the Fire brigade!

Call the fire brigade, my castle is burning!

"It wasn't me who started the fire, it was the cook!"
But the cook doesn't agree: "It wasn't me," he says, "It was the gardener!" But he claims "It was His Majesty!"
Unless it was the Sergeant?

It's the little beast...

The rabbit is climbing, climbing...

Then it is the turn of the chicken, sheep, pig, goat, squirrel and mouse ... to climb, climb... a mountain?
A huge beast!

Stag...Stag...open up!

Stag... Stag... open up! The wolf is coming!

One after the other, the rabbit, the pig and the bear beg the Stag to open his door as the wolf is coming!
But what's the occasion?

The little puppies from the first book have now grown up and this time Mr Tomcat is taking them around the garden. Its inhabitants, he informs them as they follow along, are animals of the worst kind, bad-mannered, and what's more: sly and lazy! Look at them, he continues, drawing a list: simple-minded dormice, sly raccoons, short-sighted good for nothing moles... while in fact what Mr Tomcat doesn't know is that all of them are secretly preparing a birthday celebration for him. Surprise! Certainly our grumpy Mr Tomcat, is lucky after all to have such great friends! A refreshing walk in the huge garden of a house like no other... A truly magical garden, where all would dream of spending many hours!

The Amazing Journey of Mr Postmouse

Mr Postmouse returns for a journey through the heart of the imagination!

Mr Postmouse gets up just like every other morning to do his rounds, but this morning instead of his little post van he finds a rocket...

Whether in a world filled with sweets, robots, mermaids, unicorns or even monsters, whether he is 20,000 leagues under the sea or very high up in the clouds, in the land of elves or among the giants, nothing will stop Mr Postmouse when it comes to delivering his parcels! Invoking the imaginary worlds of myths and fairy tales, Marianne Dubuc acknowledges how much fun it is to illustrate this volume of the now celebrated Mr Postmouse for a young audience. The charm of her illustrations with their bright colours and wealth of details that Marianne brings to each spread bear witness to this!

A beautiful picture book in the form of an imaginative journey, full of fantasy and surprises!

PICTURE BOOKS ANNE HERBAUTS

Anne Herbauts is an author-illustrator that has become well-known in children's books, at a very early age. Graduated from the Brussels Fine Art Academy at only 21, she has already written books that have become bestsellers, winning several important prizes. 'The three crows' won the Baobab prize (most important prize for children's books in France) in 2003. Twice shortlisted for the Andersen prize.

Her books reveal an unlimited curiosity and extreme strictness for choice of words and drawings, with wonderful sensitivity.

Trifle

By Anne Herbaunts

A beautiful, funny and moving book with a philosophical theme

Trifle is sad. He has lost his cat. He crosses paths with characters who live with more intense dramas, they are far more important!

The cowboy has lost his hat, Mrs Crow has broken her nose and has stones in her shoes, a refugee has lost his country, an ogre is very hungry, Nanook is cold... it's all more serious than having lost a cat!

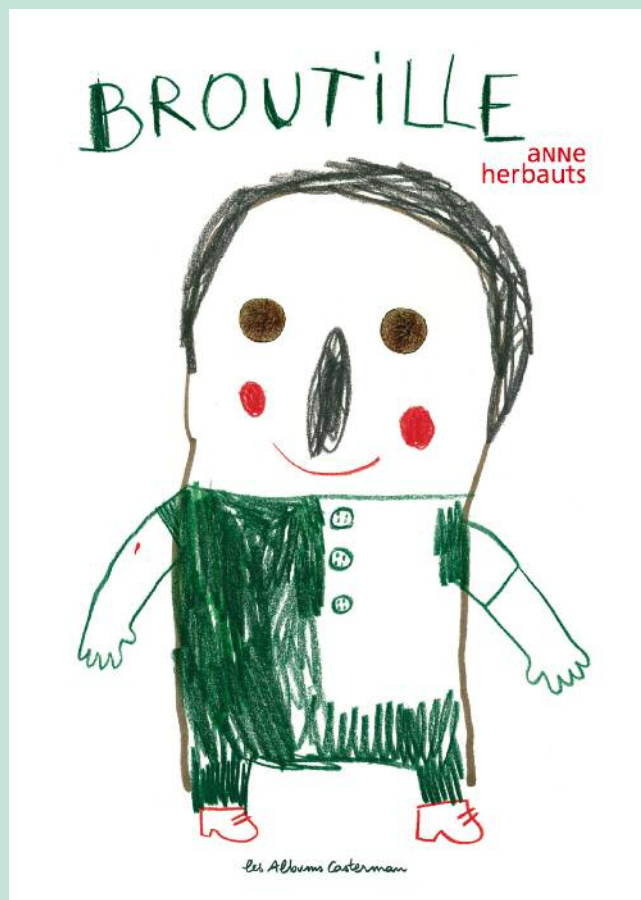

But Trifle is still upset. Fortunately he meets a dog, a dog who understands his sadness and can help him move on...

It's dinner time for The Foufous

By Françoïze Boucher

5 october 2016

21 x 26 mm

48 pages

10,90 €

The first volume of a crazy new series created by Françoïze Boucher

The Foufou family consists of two parents, five children (one of whom is an octopus) a cat-dog and a funny apartment. And when everyone meets for dinner there is a great atmosphere! Ma and Pa Foufou pray to the gods for a peaceful meal, but nothing ever happens as they would like. The children take ages to arrive. The hand washing is optional. No one is happy with the menu. Does it remind you of anything?

Is it a comic? A graphic novel? Pure madness? The Foufous are a bit of all of those, and it's certainly 48 pages of big laughs guaranteed for the whole family!

The Odyssey, retold with the wit and humour of Béatrice Bottet

Following the end of the Trojan war, which the Greeks won thanks to their ingenuity, Ulysses is on his way back to his wife Penelope and his son Telemachus on his beloved island, Ithaca. After ten years of war, it will only take a matter of days before he is back... but the gods decide otherwise.

Indeed, it will take Ulysses another ten years to return home. Ten years full of encounters and adventures that Béatrice Bottet conveys with energy and enthusiasm, while staying faithful to the original tale by Homer.

From Polyphemus the Cyclops to Circe, Nasucicaa and King Aeolus, the reader follows and delights in the wanderings of the most famous sailor of all time!

Nils Holgersson is a little boy with a tendency to dislike everyone. One day he is mean to an elf who had been watching over his family, so the elf decides to take revenge and makes Nils very small. Despite being annoyed by his new size, Nils can do nothing but listen to the reproaches of the animals he had previously been mean to. He forces himself to get used to his new size when he responds to the white gander's call to the wild geese to depart for Lapland. Nils climbs onto the gander and joins the geese.

Along with them he embarks on a fabulous voyage where he meets many interesting people who influence him. When he returns home he will be a totally different boy.

- Adaption of a world famous Swedish tale by Selma Lagerlöf, about initiation.

Happiness is in the field, Run there quick, quick! It could slip by!

This poem was written in 1917 during the first world war by Paul Fort and has become a great classic. This poem invites the reader to find happiness in the small things of life, to observe our surroundings, and to become aware of the beauties of the world.

Happiness is a temporary state which comes and goes and it is important to know how to recognise it.

Marie-Hélène's diorama adaptation (three dimension reproduction of each scenery) brings depth and perspective. Each line of text suddenly comes to life.

A breath-taking book which certainly finds resonance in today's world!

How does the badger with glasses make a new friend?

Without glasses, Badger cannot see a thing. But tonight, it's impossible to find them. That's when her neighbour the mole comes to visit. She can't see well either and comes out in the day while badger comes out at night, so she borrows her glasses without her knowledge while badger sleeps. But today, she would like to meet her.

Rediscover the story of Puss in Boots, in a version true to the original tale by Charles Perrault.

Thanks to the intelligence of Puss in boots, the son of a poor miller becomes the Marquis of Carabas. After crossing paths with the King and his daughter on their walk, he gains the land and castle of an ogre – who the Puss in Boots had beaten with his ruse. Now with so much wealth, the king allows the Marquis to marry his daughter.

Golem's Shadow

By Éliette Abécassis & Benjamin Lacombe

The legend of Golem told through the eyes of a little girl, Zelmira, who lives in Prague. In these troubled times when Jews are persecuted by the powers that rule, the Maharal, a strong believer, decides to create a creature which is capable of defending them. A strange ceremony takes place which Zelmira witnesses, hiding in the shadows. It's then that she sees a strange creature, made of four elements and totally under the command of its creator. Thanks to this creature, called Golem who has no free will, no one can now harm the Jews.

Understanding the strong bond which has formed between the little girl and the Maharal, the advisor to the king stops this balance of power. Because once Golem is captive, the Jews won't have anyone to defend them. When Zelmira is delivered by Golem it begins to change its behaviour, now it will no longer obey orders and becomes violent.

Maharal and Zelmira succeed in deactivating him, at least for a while.

A story full of friendship, inclusion and greed.

Set in a fiction island very close to Polynesia, this novel gives the reader a realistic view of current environmental concerns such as global warming and economic decline which results in immigration, exile and in some case in solidarity.

When a storm starts to flood their island, Nani's family leave for the continent. His grandfather, Enoha, decides to stay. When it's time to leave Enoha entrusts Nani with the letters which tell his story. Next follows a long journey during which Nani meets Semeio, a little boy on his own: their destiny is linked forever.

A family leave their island for a better future.
They have a long journey ahead...
