TINTIN AU PAYS DES SOVIETS - COLOUR EDITION 2017

HERGÉ

First published in 1929, Tintin in the Land of the Soviets did not again become available to the general public until 1973. This first great Tintin adventure introduced the brave reporter and his dog, and set the stage for the rest of Hergé's career as a master comic strip author.

The colour in the new version of the story has the effect of increasing legibility, as it underscores the clarity of the drawings. The new version was created with great attention to the restored original plates; the result is surprisingly modern, like a new adventure.

CORTO MALTESE - VOL. 14 EQUATORIA

CANALES / PELLEJERO / PRATT

After a bestselling relaunch, the next adventure from Canales and Pellejero is here...

It is 1911 and Corto Maltese is in Venice, accompanied by the National Geographic journalist Aida Treat, who is hoping to write a profile of him. Attempting to track down a mysterious mirror once owned by Prester John, Corto soon finds himself heading for Alexandria. Along the way, he meets the stunning Somalia-born German Ferida Schnitzer and her chaperone, the indomitable Sister Lise. Once in Egypt, Corto saves Winston Churchill from an attempted assassination by a group of nationalists before joining Henry de Monfreid and setting off for Zanzibar in the hopes of finding a notorious slave trader and picking up the trail of the mirror.

AILEFROIDE, ALTITUDE 3954 M

ROCHETTE / BOCQUET

BD le prix
Ouest-France
Qual des Bulles

A real-life origin story that celebrates a generation of climbers at a time when mountaineers were becoming professionals in their own right, distinct from the amateur locals who had gone before them. But Ailefroide is also a Mark Twain-worthy coming-of-age tale that anyone – climbing enthusiast or otherwise – will relish. It serves as a reminder of those joyful moments in our youths when we feel more free than ever, take risks, fall in love, fight, laugh and joke. It also recalls the deeper moments when we realise that we are not, after all, immortal.

COMME UN CHEF

AURÉLIA AURITA / BENOÎT PEETERS

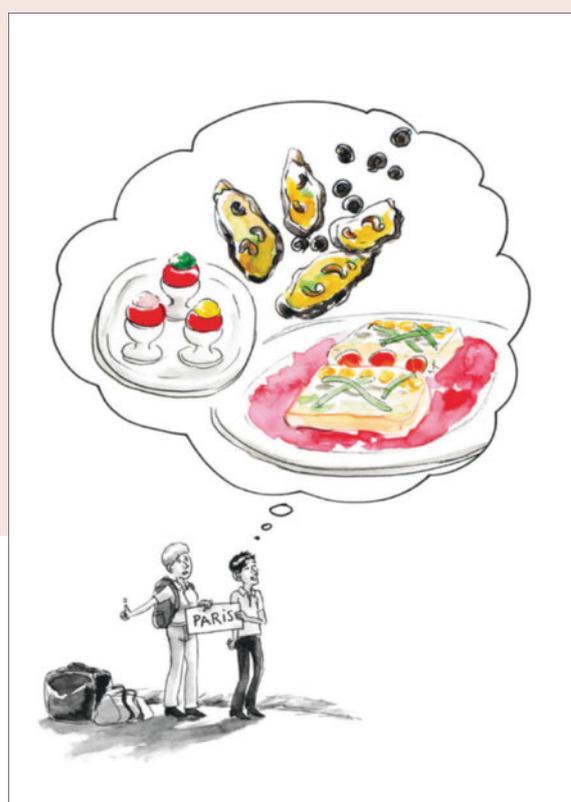

From the age of eighteen to twenty-five, Benoît Peeters was obsessed with cooking. A novelist, essayist, publisher, pupil of Roland Barthes and Hergé specialist, he has cooked up a culinary autobiography that looks back at his life as an intellectual gastronome in the pivotal 1970s and '80s. His story brings not just hilarity galore, but also personal moments in which the young academic learns to appreciate the full spectrum of humanity from his kitchen. The artwork by Aurélia Aurita reveals how flavours can become colours, effortlessly guiding us through a detailed and joyful recreation of a time when people shared, and revelled in, carefree living.

PETIT PIERRE - LA MÉCANIQUE DES RÊVES

LEBONVALLET - CASANAVE

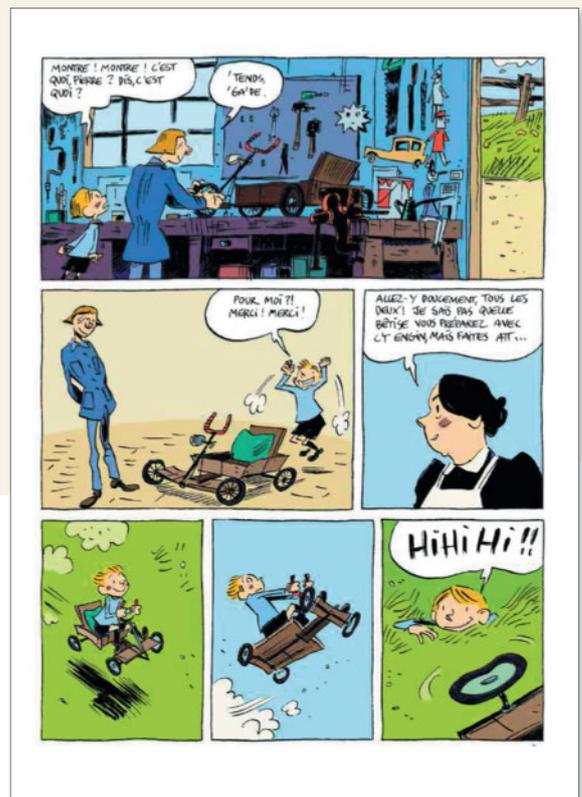

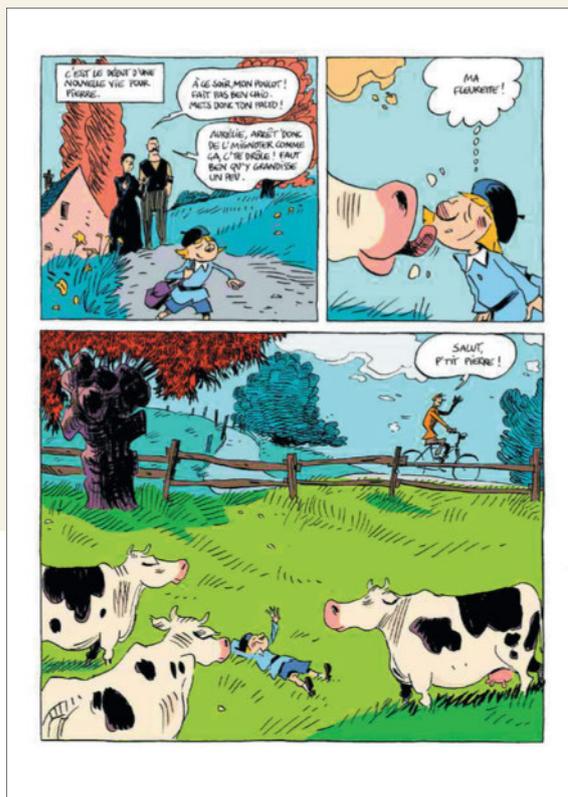

Handicapped, hunchbacked, deaf and almost dumb, Pierre Avezard was born in 1909 in rural France. Suffering from Treacher Collins syndrome, he should not have survived. 83 years later, he passes away, leaving the traces of a life of passion and poetry, and in particular « Le Manège de Petit Pierre », a masterpiece of the rotary movement and Art Brut, which is as famous as the works of Picassiette or Facteur Cheval.

To recount the life of Petit Pierre, is to say the conditions of creation of the Art Brut but also to describe the evolution of France in the 20th century through its techniques: from handcarts to Concorde, the legendary aeroplane.

IL FALLAIT QUE JE VOUS LE DISE

AUDE MERMILLIOD

The meeting of the graphic novel illustrator Aude Mermilliod and the novelist Martin Winckler. Two voices to break the silence on a topic that is still taboo: abortion.

If it offers alternative, abortion remains no less a traumatic event in a woman's life. And all the more painful that we keep it for ourselves, that we do not know how to express the ambivalence of the feelings and representations that accompany it. Anxiety, guilt, loneliness, physical suffering, and most importantly the impossibility to share our experience. With this book, Aude Mermilliod breaks the silence, mixing her testimony as a patient with that of the physician Martin Winckler. Their two paths meet and answer each other in a book that is powerful, necessary and peaceful.

A COMME EIFFEL

MARTIN TRYSTRAM / XAVIER COSTE

What does the surprisingly smooth public life of Gustave Eiffel hide? We know his great works (his Tower, the structure of the Statue of Liberty, the Panama Canal...) but not the man. A paradoxical engineer (he practices magnetism, socializes with Victor Hugo and Freemasonry, etc.), Eiffel has a special relationship with women and particularly with his cousin Alice, whose initial will inspire the final shape of the Eiffel Tower.

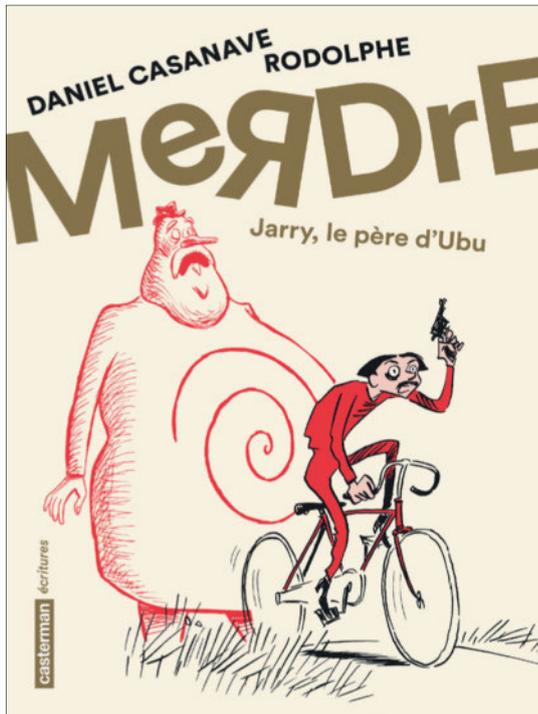

Between historical reality and romantic approach, A comme Eiffel is the story of a modern Icarus: an ascent, a climax and an abyssal fall little known to the public.

MERDRE! JARRY, LE PÈRE D'UBU

CASNAVE / RODOLPHE

Although he was born into a poor family, it didn't take long for Alfred Jarry to become the toast of the literary and artistic world of his time. Within his short life (he died at 34), his lack of money and addictions to absinthe and ether rendered the distinction between the character of Père Ubu and his creator all but non-existent, sending Jarry into the depths of despair and a mass grave. In the intervening years, Jarry had seen and revelled in it all, producing a profoundly influential body of unique work that bridged the divide between nineteenth-century symbolism and twentieth-century modernism.

LES CROCODILES SONT TOUJOURS LÀ: NOUVEAUX TÉMOIGNAGES D'AGRESSIONS SEXISTES

BOUTAN / MATHIEU

Testimonies of women about street harassment and ordinary sexism transposed into comics.

After a first volume published in 2014, Thomas Mathieu decides to revive the Crocodiles Project. This time he works with the author Juliette Boutant. In an otherwise black and white realistic environment, they represent stalkers in the form of fluorescent green crocodiles, a process that contributes to the force and the impact of the project. In this way, the authors invite readers to adopt the feminine point of view in order to raise awareness about the abnormality of some behaviors of men who assume the role of dominant predators.

WANNSEE

FABRICE LE HÉNANFF

At the height of bureaucratic horror: the meeting that decided the Holocaust.

Wannsee, upscale suburb of the German capital, January 20, 1942. Fifteen men among the highest officials of the Reich and the SS are invited to a conference in a discreet villa at the edge of a lake. This meeting is brief (less than an hour and a half), but it will be a decisive step in the organization and realization of the Holocaust and at the same time seal the fate of millions of people in Europe.

NO WAR - VOL. 1

ANTHONY PASTOR

The Vukland is an archipelago of the North Atlantic – halfway between Ireland and the United States – whose colonization took place at the expense of the native people, the Kiviks. Their historic cradle, Saarok Island, still enjoys a certain autonomy, threatened by tensions with the government around the project of a large dam. Run is the son of divorced parents. His mother is the leader of the Kivik party, while his father is a successful entrepreneur in the energy sector. While the dead body of a dam engineer is found on Saarok, violent demonstrations erupt in the capital in reaction to the election of the new populist president.

TRANSLATION SUPPORT FOR FRENCH BOOKS

There are several support programmes for publishers who wish to translate and promote French authors internationally. The main ones are:

The Centre National du Livre, with a grant covering up to 60% of the cost of the translation. More information here: http://www.centrenationaldulivre.fr/en/editeur/aide\_a\_la\_traduction/aide\_pour\_la\_traduction\_d\_ouvrages\_francais\_en\_langues\_etrangeres/

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, through the Institut Français, with a grant covering the advance on royalties. More information here: <http://www.institutfrancais.com/fr/actualit%C3%A9s/programmes-daide-la-publication#>
